

Long Term Volunteering

Those who say it cannot be done should not interrupt the people doing it.
(Chinese proverb)

Interlaken House (Cadmus)

in USA, hosted by SCI-IVS USA

Theme:	Disabilities
Location	6 homes throughout Southern Berkshire County
Duration:	10-12 months
Application:	After the application is received, interview will take place. A decision will be made within 5 up to 8 days.
Vacancies	5
Languages:
↔ Project:	English
↔ Local:	English

If you are interested in taking part in this project, or if you would like to get more information about becoming a long term volunteer, please contact your local SCI organisation. You can search for the contact information here: <http://www.sciint.org/contact-us/local-sci-branch-or-partner>

Project Description:

Our goal is to provide a meaning life-sharing environment that includes an active day program, social cultural life and a wonderful home life for people with developmental disabilities. We eat real food and provide a safe and respectful home. We are committed to social renewal and are modelled on Camphill

Work: Direct care of each individual. Being actively part of the home and program schedule (cooking, cleaning, taking individuals to their respective programs, participating in community activities). Being responsible for the overall well-being of each individual under the guidance of the houseparent.

Requirements: Must be able to drive. Be respectful for all others in the home. Compassionate. Honest. Have a good sense of humor, enjoy life, be open to self-awareness and development. Good understanding of the English language is important. We have in-service training (Human rights, fire, 1st aid, CPR, etc)

Food: Yes, good food and provided!

Accommodation: Single room, shared bathroom. No rent fee.

Pocket money: 200 USD per month

Insurance: Should come with own health/dental insurance.

Fees: None

Visa: SCI will provide documents for Volunteer Visa

Others: Looking for good honest individuals who want to have a fantastic meaning experience with some amazing individuals!